Battle Under the City Streets

In a realm not traveled by the common man exists a strange and compelling arena. A world where the warrior is king and each fighter contends for the most sought after prize of them all - the crown of the Champion.

Choose between three Pit-Fighters, each with a deadly specialty that can take you to the top! Buzz - a former Pro Wrestler with a grip of iron and a Killer Body Slam! There's Ty, a hero of the Kickboxing circuit and a veteran Pit-Fighter. He has the Deadly Flying Spin Kick.

Last, but not least is Kato, Master of the Flying Dragon style of Karate. With his incredible speed and agility, he delivers the Lethal Combo Dragon Punch! All of these warriors have a shot at the current champ and its going to take all of your skill and determination to get there!

Starting the Match

Place the Pit-Fighter game pak in the Game Boy System and turn it on. Press the Start button when the title screen appears. This brings up the player select screen. This is where you choose between Buzz, Ty and Kato as your character using the B button. Each have strengths and weaknesses that you'll need to learn to master the game.

Once you have decided which warrior to take into battle, press the Start button. This takes you to the beginning of the first match.

Controlling the Character

Press the following buttons individually for these results:

A button - Use to throw a punch.

B button - Use to kick.

Control Pad (arrows) - Moves character around the ring.

Start button - Use to pause/unpause the game.

The buttons can be used in combination with other buttons and/or the control pad for a variety of effects:

A + Up arrow - Lifts enemy.

B + Down arrow - Makes character duck down.

B + L or R arrows - Launch a jump kick.

Controlling the Character

A+B - Super move (if AB marks in score area)

When a player has a Super Power (as shown, by AB marks on the left of the score area), then pressing the A or B simultaneously will cause the character to begin his Super move.

The player receives the Super Power after successfully completing a match. As long as the AB indicator is blinking, the character has a chance to use his Super move.

The Status Area

In the lower left corner of the screen is the status area for your fighter. The data listed is your player's health, the score (in dollar amounts), Super Power marks (AB), and an indicator for a Knockout Bonus (KO's).

The score indicator for your opponent is similar and in the lower right corner of the screen. Only the health of the opponent and an indicator for Knockout Bonus (KO's) is shown.

Your player can receive full health when the scores of 50,000, 150,000, 350,000, and 600,000 are achieved.

The Matches

All regular matches continue until one of the combatant's health drops to zero. There are a total of ten regular matches. After every two matches there's a Grudge Match. Three Knockdowns are necessary to complete a grudge match. All Knockdowns are recorded in the status screen.

Only a surviving player goes on to challenge the current title holder, ULTIMATE, in the Championship Match!
